December 3rd, 2013:

The Department of Romance Languages is pleased to announce that we will have several substantial departmental scholarships available for students in the 2014/15 academic year.

These scholarships are open to current UO undergraduate and graduate students in the Romance Languages Department. Undergraduate students must be declared majors or minors in the Romance Languages Department at the time of application. In order to receive a scholarship award you must be enrolled at the UO as a full time student during the 2014/2015 academic year.

The following criteria apply to all scholarships (additional criteria may apply to individual scholarships, as indicated). The completed application is due in the Romance Languages Office by Monday, February 17th, 2014, and must include:

1. A statement of purpose in applying for the scholarship (maximum of three pages). The statement should include personal qualifications, professional interest in the target language, and intended use of the scholarship.

2. Two letters of recommendation from faculty members. Please use departmental form attached.

3. A current unofficial transcript (minimum requirement: 3.75 GPA in Maj/Min courses and 3.50 GPA overall).

4. A financial need statement. (suggested length: 1-2 paragraphs)

5. For scholarships to support study abroad only: A description of the program that you plan to attend. Documentation attesting acceptance into a program may be requested by the RL department before disbursement of the scholarship award. (For the Stickels Scholarship, students will need to present documentation certifying registration and/or acceptance in a foreign university before their trip.)

Any scholarship award may have an impact on financial aid. Please check with the Financial Aid office prior to accepting any scholarships.

All applicants will be notified of their status (awarded/declined) by Friday April 11th 2014
